It isn't only the rich who have enjoyed this pleasure. The women of smaller means have counted with the same amount of pleasure on what they will be able to do today, even though that has been in a smaller way than with their more plentifully dowered sisters. As a consequence of all this, Salt Lake churches get a big turnout this morning, for many come to hear divine service the more readily at least because they can do so in proper splendor.

Children Are Happy

Children Are Happy.

With the children the day will be a sort of quiet holiday. They have their Easter eggs, and in many places their Easter eggs, and in many places their Easter candies. The old custom of dyeing eggs in brilliant hus is more prevalent this year than it was sever before, and local drug stores have done a big business in pretty dyes of all imaginable colors. Easter is universally observed among churches. Lent is pretty much confined, so far as observance in the way of service goes, to the Catholic and Episcospring raiment. The big dry goods and millinery stores have been crowded during the forty week days past. New spring styles have been in evidence everywhere, and as fast as they came into evidence have been taken away into various homes.

This, in brief, is the religious history of today, and the season that preceded it. In the different churches all over Salt Lake special services, marked by unusually good music and sermons prepared for the occasion, will be held this morning. These are given in another column.

NOW ON WEST DIVIDE.

Camp Roosevelt Removed to Will Gregor Ranch.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo., April 22.—Camp Rooseveit was today transferred from the East to the West divide. President Roosevelt and party, according to a report received here tonight, were up early and, taking their tents on their backs, started for the Will Gregor ranch, which is just twenty miles from New Castle. They have pitched their camp on the banks of West Divide creek and will remain there until some time next week P. B. Stewart bade the President goodbye today. He returned to his nome in Colorado Springs.

On account of the distance from town President Roosevelt will in all probability decline the invitation to attend church in New Castle tomorrow.

Secretary Loeb spent a quiet day. He attended to a voluminous mail from Washington and just before dinner took a plunge in the pool. Tonight the party will be serenaded by the Glenwood brass band.
